THE NATIONAL CONGRESS.

THE SENATE STILL AT WORK ON THE TARIFF BILL.

A Pass Between Morgan and Sherman—Senator Daniel Denounces Tax on Tin Plates.

(By United Press.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—In the Senate this morning Mr. Hale, from the census committee reported back House bill to extend the census laws so as to require information to be obtained from unincorporated express companies. After a short discussion, the bill passed without amendment.

Mr. Edwards presented the motion for an order bringing debate on the tariff bill, which he had offered just before adjournment yesterday, and it was laid on the table and ordered printed.

Mr. Blair also offered a resolution for such a change of the rules as will permit the previous question to be moved after a proposition has been considered two days. This was also laid on the table and ordered printed.

The tariff bill was then taken up, the pending question being on Mr. Vest's amendments offered yesterday reducing the duty on tin plates from 2-10 cents per pound to one cent the present rate.

Mr. Morgan resumed his argument begun yesterday against the increased duty provided in the paragraph. Mr. Morgan gave it as his opinion that the Republicans intended to pass the bill, and that in conference a new bill would be agreed upon.

Mr. Sherman explained that the conference committee could not go outside of the bill and amendments.

Mr. Morgan was not so sure of that, for the conference committee on the silver bill had done that very thing.

Mr. Sherman said that was because the Senate had struck out the whole of the House bill, and by that action had left the question open.

Mr. Morgan replied that on the tariff bill the Senate had struck out the whole internal revenue sections, and he failed to see but that the situation was the same.

Mr. Daniel addressed the Senate, and characterized the proposed increase of duty on tin plate as another step in the relentless war which the Republican party was waging against the agricultural and producing classes of the country.

House.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The House passed a concurrent resolution extending current appropriations to August 29th. The motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill to prevent collisions at sea was passed was agreed to, the bill was amended slightly and again passed.

The House also passed Senate bill requiring vessels in collision at sea to stand by each other (with amendments). Senate bill requiring a written agreement with seamen shipping in the coastwise trade, and Senate bill to extend time of payment to purchasers of land of the Omaha Indians in Nebraska. At 5.15 the House adjourned.

MOLTEN METAL RAN OUT.

Two Men Blown Out of Existence and Others Badly Burned.

(By United Press.)

JOLIET, Ill., Aug. 12.—A terrific explosion with fatal results occurred at the Illinois Steel Works at 2 o'clock this morning. Blast furnace No. 2, sprung a leak and the molten metal ran out and down into the canal generating steam which caused the explosion. The metal was blown in all directions, tearing off the top of the furnace and the roof of the building. John Novak and Oscar Sabaki, employees, were blown out of existence and their remains have not yet been found. Peter Schrier was so horribly burned and cooked that he lived but half an hour. Tim McCarthy was burned about the head and back and will die. Several other employees received slight burns.

Inter-State Commission Thrown Out of Court.

(By United Press.)

CINCINNATI, O., August 12.—The decision of Judges Jackson and Sage, of the U. S. court yesterday, throwing the Inter-State Commerce Commission out of court on their suit against the Baltimore & Ohio, is a complete knock out for the commission. It is held that party or theatrical rates are just and proper, and subject alone to the proviso that rates must be just and reasonable, and that no unjust discrimination be made against persons or traffic similarly circumstanced.

MINERAL LANDS DISCOVERED.

The Hotel Fountain Insured for $10,000.—Politics in Forsyth and the Piedmont Country.

(Special Correspondence State Chronicle.)

WINSTON, N. C., Aug. 12th, 1890.—Some mineral discoveries are being made on the Roanoke & Southern Railroad while the grading of the bed is being carried on. It was learned here to day that on the premises of Mr. Milner Bangher, near Price's store, in Rockingham county, the convicts dug into what proved to be one of the most valuable veins of silver ever discovered in the South. An option was at once taken out on the lands and the mine will be worked immediately.

Mineral lands are being taken up fast in that section. In the bordering Virginia counties to Rockingham in this State and in the northern part of that county, some of the most valuable discoveries of magnetic iron ore, oxide of silver, antimony, tin and copper have been made. Mr. L. L. Thomas, an old citizen of Henry county, Va., but formerly of Thomasville, N. C., which place bears his name, is at the head of a mining party who are making the most valuable discoveries. Mr. J. Turner Morehead, of Leaksville, and Dr. R. W. Thomas, of Thomasville, are associated with him and at an early day they will begin work for some of these valuable in the southwestern corner of Henry, and southern part of Patrick counties in Virginia, and northern part of Rockingham, N. C. Mining is the rage in the counties north of us. The Pepper mines in Stokes and the newly discovered coal beds in Surry are only awaiting the decision of some big syndicate, when they will be developed. North Carolina is wealthy below the surface. Let her be developed.

The flames which wrapt the Fountain Hotel in a red sheet and consigned it to ashes yesterday morning had not finished their destructive work when my letter to the CHRONICLE was called off by the departing train. The building was owned by Capt. Robert W. Belo, formerly a citizen of Raleigh, and was insured for $40,000. It was destroyed with a lot of handsome furniture stored away in the third story and the rear wing of the building. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

As wired to you yesterday, Stokes county has nominated its Democratic ticket to win this fall. It is one of the best that has ever been put up in that county. Mr. O. J. Brown, who was nominated for the House, is one of the best men in Piedmont Carolina, and has the full confidence of the people of his section. Mr. A. M. Stack, the nominee for clerk of the court, is a promising young lawyer and helps to strengthen the ticket greatly. These men will probably lead the ticket.

The writer saw some of the tribe of Benjamin on their way to Wilkesboro yesterday where they hold their judicial convention to-day. Thomas Settle was along, loaded down with a big gun to try and blow Barber out of his own county. But Barber ain't built that way. He is a man of the people and Settle he is a Settle man, first, last and all the time.

The Democrats of Forsyth are beginning to hang their goose high up in the air. They jerked him high the first time they proposed to nominate such men as Capt. R. B. Glenn and H. E. Fries for the General Assembly, but now that they have another string to their hoop and proposed to put E. H. Wilson through for treasurer there is no doubt but that the Republican goose is cooked. Forsyth will go Democratic if the Farmers' Alliance will allow it to. M. VICTOR.

WINSTON vs. DURHAM.

"Hog Eye Man" Propounds Another Question to Our Winston Correspondent.

(Special Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.)

DURHAM, N. C., Aug. 11, 1890.—I see that M. Victor, your Winston correspondent, claims that Winston used more stamps from August 1st, '89 to Aug. 1st, '90, than Durham. If this be so I have lost my bottle of cider, but I want the matter thoroughly understood because I am somewhat in doubt whether or not M. Victor thoroughly understands my proposition. The amount given as having been paid for by Durham embraces only the stamps paid for and used by the factories in the corporate limits of the town of Durham. Does M. Victor allege that the factories within the corporate limits of the town of Winston, from the 1st of August, '89, to the 1st of August, '90, paid $777,133.41 for internal revenue stamps? If so, I have lost my bottle of cider and will do as M. Victor says, and furnish two bottles and a watermelon.

YOU CAN'T DOWN DURHAM.

Its Candidate for the Legislature Has a Strong Card.

(Durham Sun.)

Do you hear that? Well, we have fine crops growing. As a proof of this we will cite an instance. Dr. W. M. Lowe, the Democratic nominee for the House, has a splendid stand of tobacco. A few days ago a lady from his house went into one of his fields, and while out there it rained very hard. She sheltered herself under the tobacco leaves and kept very dry. Don't you know that is fine tobacco?

THE STATE ALLIANCE.

ALEXANDER SAYS VANCE WILL CERTAINLY BE RE-ELECTED.

Big Reception Held.—Speeches by the Mayor, General Vance, Hon. Thos. D. Johnston, Col. L. L. Polk, E. A. Moyer, Major Graham, President Carr, and Others.—President Carr's Wise Address.

(Special to STATE CHRONICLE.)

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 12.—The State Farmers' Alliance assembled here to-day, President Elias Carr, of Edgecombe county, presiding. Every county in the State, but one, is represented. President Carr said to-day that it was the largest, as it would be the most important, assembly of the kind ever held in the State, but refused to outline the matters that he would be returned. A prominent delegate, said to-day that the Alliance as a body would not oppose the reelection of Vance to the United States Senate, and he was certain he would be returned.

A meeting of delegates and citizens was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The delegates were met by the Buncombe county Alliance and Knights of Labor and escorted to the Farmers' Alliance Warehouse, headed by the Cornet Band. At the warehouse the procession was met by the citizens committee and given a reception. A speech of welcome in behalf of Asheville was delivered by Mr. Thomas D. Johnston, and responded to by the Hon. G. W. Sanderlin. Gen. R. B. Vance next spoke in behalf of the farmers of western North Carolina, and it was a most able and effective address of welcome.

E. A. Moyer, Esq., of Pitt county spoke in behalf of the State Alliance, responding to the welcome extended by Asheville.

Short addresses were also delivered by Maj. W. A. Graham and Col. L. L. Polk, after which the delegates and officers of the Alliance were taken in charge by the citizens' committee in carriages and driven to all places of interest in and around the city. There are about five hundred Farmers' Alliancemen, aside from the delegates and officers of the State Alliance, in attendance upon the convention.

Colonel Polk, the national president, speaks to the Alliance to-night.

President Carr's Address.

President ELIAS CARR delivered the annual address. The full text is as follows:

TO THE OFFICERS AND DELEGATES OF THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE FARMERS' ALLIANCE:

Our fourth annual meeting is at hand and the signs of the times indicate a still greater interest in the objects and aims of our order and a unity of feeling among the agricultural and laboring classes, never before witnessed in this country. It is a source of congratulation and presages aught but good. At a banquet age at our first, Rockingham, meeting, we numbered eight county and one hundred and thirty-two subordinate Alliances. At our second meeting, in Raleigh, we had fifty-two county and one thousand and eighteen subordinate Alliances. At our third—Fayetteville—eighty-nine county and one thousand eight hundred and sixteen subordinate Alliances, with an actual membership of sixty-five thousand. To-day we have a total of ninety-five county and two thousand one hundred and forty-seven subordinate Alliances containing an approximate membership of ninety thousand, with every county in the State organized save Dare. Notwithstanding this, applications for new charters are constantly being received and the work goes bravely on, with an increasing demand for lecturers and organizers. The reports of the executive committee, secretary, treasurer, State lecturer and business agent will better set forth the condition of the order. To them I respectfully refer you, asking a careful consideration at your hands.

Perhaps the most important meeting ever held in this country has been the assembling of the Farmers and Labor organizations in St. Louis in December last, the necessity for which was foreshadowed by that eminent statesman and jurist, the late Judge David Davis, when he said, as long ago as 1866: "The rapid growth of the corporate power and the malign influence which it exerts by combination on the national and State legislatures is a well-grounded cause of alarm. A struggle is pending in the near future between this overgrown power, with its vast ramifications all over the Union and a hard grip on much of the political machinery on the one hand, and the people in an unorganized condition on the other for the control of the government. It will be watched by every patriot with intense anxiety." Never more prophetic words fell from the lips of man! The people though slow to admit it, had at last been convinced, and three millions of people sent their representatives there to form an alliance against this monstrous iniquity. The unanimity with which the demands set forth by that body were adopted and the universal endorsement by all the States and Territories after mature deliberation and discussion, should, I believe will convince our legislators of our honesty of purpose and determination to accomplish our ends. This meeting, National in character as in name, was a magnificent success in obliterating the old lines of sectionalism—a matter devoutly to be wished and of first importance in securing the necessary national legislation.

While some of the demands set forth have been granted, the most important, the relief of the financial distress of the farmers, has been ignored. The labors of the past are as nothing if we expect to accomplish this end. This government for the last thirty years has been run in the interest of a vicious war party. The war feeling has predominated in every national election. The men who did the fighting have no voice in the government. Who are the men in power to-day? Those that were enriched by the war and its consequent legislation. The ill-gotten millions of these legislators has been the power behind the throne. The evidence of this is found in the history of the laws, the history of the bonds, the history of the national banks and the history of the demonization of silver. But a stronger evidence yet is the present condition of the working classes, who, as a rule the world over, are patient and peaceable.

What means these labor organizations? This—that the people see by combination alone can they live. Under a purer system of government forty years ago these organizations were unknown and there was no necessity for them, but to-day how different! Every branch of trade has been compelled to organize to save itself from absolute annihilation, and it is to be wondered at when we come to learn that the present iniquitous tariff laws, the passage of which was purchased by a few thousand rich manufacturers, have robbed the people and put into the pockets of these same manufacturers no less than nine billions of dollars. Hence it is that at our city of Washington the protest of a millionaire will over-ride the petitions of millions of working men.

To what cause can such a terrible state of affairs be attributed? It is due to the apathy or the ignorance of the masses. We must conclude the latter and it behooves the order and the state to EDUCATE THE MASSES AND TEACH THEM TO THINK FOR THEMSELVES.

The acts of Congress in aid of agriculture for the last twenty-five years have been few indeed compared with those of our rich manufacturers, and the tariff is so manipulated that they—the few thousand—reap the entire benefits. We all know but too well the result of this reign of selfish greed. The small land owners are being pushed to the wall, the larger ones are no longer able to make both ends meet; farms in the North, South, East and West, and especially West, that twenty-five years ago, during the period of greatest inflation, that paid a fair percentage on a valuation of $20 to $40 are now being foreclosed on mortgages for half that amount, and the former owners seeking new fields of employment for a livelihood.

It is a sad commentary on humanity, but nevertheless true, that with an unequal distribution of wealth there is unequal distribution of social power. The influence of the middle class, the man of moderate means, is no longer felt in the legislative halls of the capitol, he is being swept away. Wealth is rapidly concentrating and out of the consequent corruption but two classes are forming—the lordly rich and the beggarly poor. While free to admit that the iniquitous protective tariff has brought about the present depressed state of agriculture by stripping the poor of three-fourths of their natural savings and concentrating a majority of the wealth of the country in the hands of an infinitesimally small part of the people, composed of manufacturers, trusts, pools and combines, a repeal alone of this unjust measure would not relieve the present distress. It would not lift a single mortgage. The one thing needful in the present financial condition of the people is a debt-paying system of finance. In comparison with which all other questions sink into utter insignificance.

While looking after our National governmental relations, we must not lose sight of the education of the masses. While free to admit that the iniquitous protective tariff has brought about the present depressed state of agriculture by stripping the poor of three-fourths of their natural savings and concentrating a majority of the wealth of the country in the hands of an infinitesimally small part of the people, composed of manufacturers, trusts, pools and combines, a repeal alone of this unjust measure would not relieve the present distress. It would not lift a single mortgage. The one thing needful in the present financial condition of the people is a debt-paying system of finance. In comparison with which all other questions sink into utter insignificance.

I further recommend the appointment of a legislative committee whose duty it shall be to look after the interest of the order. Likewise that some adequate provision be made for the national per capita tax of 5 cents; and that the State Secretary be made State Crop Statistician; the County Secretary, the County Statistician, and the sub-Secretary, the sub-Statistician with adequate compensation for their services; and finally, in view of the fact, that we were numerically weak at the formation and adoption of our constitution and since the order has wonderfully increased in strength and members, and the duties devolving upon us being infinitely more onerous, I recommend a revision of the constitution to a special committee, if it need the approval of this body.

I have dwelt longer upon national affairs, believing that there, in the Capitol at Washington, have originated the farmers woes and from that source alone can come the remedy. Let us continue to insist upon our National Congress giving us this much needed relief. History teaches that the with which the rich bind the poor can be broken only by fire, sword or bloody revolution. But we have a better method of overturning fraud and corruption in high places. We have free speech and free ballot, and when the wisdom of the acts of the national meeting, like heaven, begin to work upon the masses of the people, then and not till then shall we have a peaceful and happy solution of all our troubles. In conclusion I desire to return my sincere thanks to you, to each county and subordinate body and each individual member for the universal kindness, courtesy and honors bestowed upon me. May wisdom crown your deliberations.

HE DOESN'T RUN A RAIL ROAD.

Gov. Hill Will Act Promptly and Vigorously to Protect Property and Prevent Violence But Does Not Regard Himself as a Sheriff or Policeman.

(By United Press.)

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Gov. Hill has sent the following telegram to Vice-President Webb about calling out troops to protect the New York Central property:

"Your dispatch to Gov. Hill is at hand. I am directed to say that Gen. Farnsworth was sent to Syracuse to investigate the strike and report thereon. It is desirable that official and authoritative information should be obtained before any overt action is taken. You may rest assured that the State authorities will act promptly and vigorously in protecting the property of the company and preventing violence.

It is not their business to run the New York Central railroad, but only to act in preventing damage to property. They are not expected to do police duty, nor are they expected to perform the duties of a sheriff. The powers of the civil authorities should be fully applied before resort should be had to military powers. The Governor requests that you keep him fully informed as to further developments.

(Signed) COL. E. L. JUDSON, Military Secretary."

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—When Vice-President Webb received Col. Judson's reply to his request for protection of the Central property, he called a conference of the Central officials. They decided to instruct Pinkerton's detectives employed there to charge the strikers upon any show of violence, and if necessary, to give Governor a casus belli for the ordering out the troops.

BOSTON IS CAPTURED AND IS IN GALA ATTIRE.

The Meeting of the Organized Pension Grabbers in the Hub—The Grand Review.

(By United Press.)

BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Boston put on her gala attire to-day to welcome the G. A. R., which has literally captured and taken possession of the city. Flags and emblems and mottoes meet the eye in every direction; the streets are crowded with a standstill with members of the G. A. R. and on every hand bands are playing and drums beating at the head of marching army posts.

The grand review to-day was a tremendous one, taking over five hours to pass a given point. Gen. Alger marched at the head of the procession, which was reviewed by the President, surrounded by several members of his cabinet, a number of Governors from adjacent States and many notables.

BATON ROUGE, La., Aug. 12.—The Farmers' Alliance has adopted resolutions denouncing the Alliance men in the General Assembly who voted in favor of rechartering the Louisiana Lottery Company as traitors to the cause and principles of the union and refusing to affiliate with them as members of the order, and recommending that the subordinate unions expel them; also denouncing the lottery as a vile curse and enormous iniquity.

WILL THERE BE A SPLIT?

THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION MEETS AT COLUMBIA TO-DAY.

A Split is Predicted, But the Chronicle Believes That the South Carolina Democrats Will Be Too Wise to Divide Now—What Will the Negroes Do?

(By United Press.)

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 12.—The State Democratic convention which meets at Columbia to-morrow will decide whether there will be a split in the party or not. Tillman has 253 out of the 320 delegates, and it is generally thought he will try to get the nomination although the convention is called to decide whether the State officers shall be nominated by primary on convention plan.

If the primary plan is not adopted a split will doubtless follow, for many of the county delegation are elected for both the present convention and the convention in September, which is to nominate officers.

These elections are declared illegal by the Democratic executive committee and such delegates will not be recognized in September by the regular Democracy. Since Tillman's canvass of the State, the regular Democrats have perfected organizations in almost every county, and are prepared to fight to a finish.

There will be in fact two Democratic conventions in session in Columbia to-morrow for the straight out Democracy will be there in force; in fact they are already on the ground.

A good deal has been said about the negro vote. Prominent Republican leaders now openly say that there will be no Republican State ticket in the field, but that the negroes, if they take any part in the election, will certainly not vote with the Tillmanites in making up their Democratic rolls on which representation in the county convention is based, but if it comes to a split the majority of the negroes will vote against Tillman with the more conservative white voters of the State. On the whole it looks like a split whichever way the cat may jump.

BRANCH NOMINATED.

He Gets the Nomination for Congress On the First Ballot.

(Special to the State Chronicle.)

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., August 12.—Branch was nominated on the first ballot by a fractional vote. Roberts next. Scattering votes for Lucas, Shaw and Skinner. After the nomination there were patriotic speeches from all the candidates pledging their cordial support to the nominee. Mr. Branch's speech of acceptance was brief but was enthusiastically received by the large assembly. Harmony prevailed.

[Mr. W. A. B. Branch, the nominee for Congress, is a citizen of Beaufort county, and a leading member of the Farmers' Alliance. He is, we believe, a native of Raleigh, a son of GEN. L. O'B. BRANCH, who once represented this district in Congress, and is a brother of Mrs. ARMISTEAD JONES, of Raleigh. He is said to be an eloquent speaker, a strong debater and a well read and well informed publicist. He placed Governor NORFOLK in nomination at the last State Convention in a speech that was ornate and pleasing. He will make an aggressive campaign, and will be elected. —EDITOR.]
